

Longhorn Players Booster Club Scholarship Rubric

Applicant Number: _____ Total Score out of 75 Points: _____ Judge: _____

	Outstanding 20-25	Good 15-19	Average 10-14	Below Average 0--10	Score
Resume List the theater activities you have participated in at GRHS and in your community over the last four years.	Participation is extensive and includes onstage and backstage assignments, leadership positions, and Thespians membership. The student has extensively participated in community shows and/or training outside of GRHS.	The list is above average and includes participation onstage and backstage. The student is a member of Thespians and has had some training or participation in community theatre outside of GRHS.	The student has had average participation in high school, is not a member of Thespians, and has not had much participation or training outside of GRHS.	The student has had minimal participation in high school theatre activities, is not a Thespian member, and has not participated in performances or trainings outside of GRHS.	_____
Essay 1 How have these activities impacted your life in high school and what skills have you learned that will help you succeed later in life?	Specific activities and life skills are referenced. Ideas are compelling, well developed, thoughtful, and easy to follow. The writer fully answers the question without errors in spelling, grammar, or mechanics. The writer uses MLA format.	Ideas are somewhat developed and easy to follow but need more compelling details. There are minimal errors in spelling, grammar, or mechanics. The writer uses MLA format.	Activities and life skills are mentioned but connections to future success are vague. There are multiple errors in spelling, grammar, or mechanics. The writer does not use MLA format.	The writer does not reference activities, life skills learned, or does not connect them to future success. Errors are made in spelling, grammar, or mechanics. The writer does not use MLA format.	_____
Essay 2 What is your favorite high school theater experience and why?	Ideas are thoughtful and well developed. The experience is unique, personal, and engages the reader. The essay does not have errors in spelling, grammar, or mechanics. The writer uses MLA format.	Ideas are thoughtful and well developed but need more engaging details to show the author's unique personality. There are minimal errors in spelling, grammar, or mechanics. The writer uses MLA format.	Ideas are thoughtful but need more details to offer insight into the student's unique experience. The essay has errors in spelling, grammar, and mechanics. The writer does not use MLA format.	Ideas are vague and the value of this experience was not fully developed in the essay. The essay has multiple errors in spelling, grammar, and mechanics. The writer does not use MLA format.	_____